Online National Level Critique Competition on DISCRIMINATION AND DEROGATION OF WOMEN DIGNITY IN MASCULINE MEDIA: CRITIQUE ON HIDDEN AGENDA OF PATRIARCHY

On the occasion of International Women's Day on 8th March, 2021, Bharati Vidyapeeth's New Law College, Sangli organized an Online National Level Critique Competition, 2021 on the theme of DISCRIMINATION AND DEROGATION OF WOMEN DIGNITY IN MASCULINE MEDIA: CRITIQUE ON HIDDEN AGENDA OF PATRIARCHY.

This competition was organized with the motive to take note of derogatory depiction of women telecasted on small and big screens which is not only discriminatory and derogatory to status and dignity of women but inconsistent with the constitutional principles relating to Justice, Equality, Liberty and Fraternity also. Advertisements, TV serials, web series, reality shows etc have been unreasonably hypothecating and depicting women as mystique, wicked, obscene and villainous manner which is irrational, unreal and unreasonable. All this is being done in the name of entertainment, fun, arts, freedom of expression etc. Hence, through the competition it was an attempt to provide a platform to students to offer reasoned and justified critique and comment on such programs and promote youth/students of UG/PG to think over the issues from various perspectives such as legal, ethical, social, political, economical, feminist, left, right, religious, philosophical, natural, rational etc and to let students express themselves in just, fair and equitable manner.

Principal, Dr Pooja Narwadkar welcomed and introduced the Chief Guest. Then, Chief Guest, Hon.Minister,Adv. Yashomati Thakur, Women and Child Development Department inaugurated the program with her inspirational inaugural speech .She appreciated an innovative effort of the college and offered her best wishes for future endeavors. Even she shared her views about the great work done by the founder, Chancellor of Bharati Viyapeeth, Hon. Dr. Patangraoji Kadam and paid tribute to him.

In all , students from 190 colleges, Universities and Law schools registered their participation in this competition . In the first round 42 students got selected and 9 students from these were selected for the Final round. The best three winners were consequently offered prizes of Rs. 5000/- (first rank), Rs. 3000/- (Second rank) and Rs. 2000/- (Third rank) . Hon. Dr. Anand Pawar , Dr. Jyoti Dharm and Dr. Deepa Shravasti collectively judged the deliberations of finalists on the subject.

Hon. Dr. Divya Chansouriya, Head of Law department, Rani Durgavati Vishwavidyalaya ,Jabalpur , presided over the valedictory function . In her valedictory address she appealed all to treat women with dignity to treat them as human beings instead of glorifying them as goddess'. Further, she said that in reality women don't get equal rights and the role of women is limited to household chores which needs to be changed because women deserve equal opportunities at everything like men and as the world is moving towards equality for both men and women, the change is something that is needed and is essential .She presented a beautiful poem on this. She offered her best wishes to the college while concluding her speech.

The competition was coordinated by Prof. Sanjay Aher and Prof .Shreyash Mohite and Prof .Rashami Arrawattigi ,Ms. Shreelaxmi Mundancherry and Prof. Smita Adimani compered the program.
