It is essential to appoint only one teacher for one subject and not more than one. Thank you.

There should be only one teacher for one subject.

Teaching and institution is very good and clean...also the best guidance and support to students...But my suggestion ,take the maximum practical exams and test after every unit.

Not necessary

Goog learning

Nothing to suggest...all the teachers are best and their work is excellent

Teachers must use Bare Acts while teaching.

Yes, it is admitted that some students will not agree with this method,

But as per my view to understand law subject or for conceptual clarity it is crucial to read bare Act.

Thank you..

I am satisfied for our teaching process, No any suggestions.

Well good education. supporting teaching staff. no suggestions

The best way of teaching and learning process is by organising debates and lectures of prominent personality as well as they must include a project by which economically and socially backward students can self help themselves, that means they must be provided with earn and learn scheme regarding these course which will definitely make a change.

Thank you.
