Elimination of stress is unrealistic, as It is a part of normal life: Hon.Vikas Lokhande

Bharati Vidyapeeth's New Law College Sangli organized a one day workshop in collaboration with Subdivision Office Sangli Police on February, 3, 2017 at the auditorium of the college. Hon.Vikas Lokhande, Chairman of Vikas Foundation, Kolhapur guided the police officers and staff. In his address he said that stress may be considered as any physical, chemical, or emotional factor that causes bodily or mental unrest. A mild degree of stress and tension can sometimes be beneficial. It is only when stress is overwhelming, or poorly managed, that its negative effects appear.

An important goal for those under stress is the management of life stresses. Elimination of stress is unrealistic and it's impossible to completely eliminate stress, and it would not be advisable to do so. Instead, we can learn relaxation techniques and other methods to manage stress so that we have control over our stress and its effects on our physical and mental health.
