“THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA”

INTRODUCTION:

On November 26, 1949, the Constituent Assembly of India formally adopted the Constitution of India. It came into force on January 26, 1950. The Constitution is a set of written principles and precedents of the Government of India. It frames fundamental political principles, procedures, rights, directive principles, restrictions, and duties of the government and the citizens of the country. The Constitution of India declares the country a sovereign, secular, socialist, and democratic republic. It assures its citizen's equality, liberty, and justice.

As we celebrate 73 years of this historic and remarkable document for social, political, and economic development, which has informed almost every aspect of human life,
