National Legal Services Day is observed every year on 9th November to commemorate the commencement of Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 which came into force on 9th November, 1995. On National Legal Services Day, legal awareness camps are held by State Legal Services Authorities across the country to apprise people about the availability of free legal aid. Further, nationwide programme are organized every year to make people aware of the various services provided by Legal Services Authorities.

This Year BV's New Law College, Sangli, on the occasion of National Legal Services Day, had organized Street Play. This street play was performed by our students. The play was performed at College Campus, Rajwada Chowk, Maruti Chowk, Pushpraj Chowk, Vishrambag Chowk and at the District and Sessions Court, Sangli. The object of this program was to make legal awareness about the Legal Services provided by the Legal Services Authority. The main theme of the play was "Legal Services by Legal Services Authority."

At the end of the street play our students allotted pamphlets to the public. The pamphlet provided all the information relating to Legal Services Authority which our students demonstrated through their street play.

By this street play our students gave information to the public relating to following points: -

1. What is Legal Services Authority?
2. What are the functions of Legal Services Authority?
3. Who are eligible to get free services by Legal Services Authority?
4. Which kind of legal services are provided by Legal Services Authority?
5. Which kind of legal services are not provided by Legal Services Authority?
6. How to file an application to get legal service?

So many people gathered to watch this play. Some of the people asked their queries to the students. Our students gave satisfactory answers to those queries. People expressed their gratitude towards college for organizing such legal awareness activity.

Students should understand the importance of legal frameworks that support women's rights, representation, and participation in decision-making processes.

Mr. Sanjay Aher conducted session on Gender Issues.

Objective of the Session

The objective of teaching gender issues is to promote understanding, awareness, and critical analysis of gender as a social construct, challenge stereotypes and biases, address gender inequality, empower individuals and communities, and inspire activism for gender equality.

Mrs Manisha Kale conducted Session on Protect her from sexual harassment of women at work place, Human rights commission, Commission for women.

Objective of the Session

- Raise Awareness: Educate individuals about the prevalence and impact of sexual harassment in the workplace, promoting a better understanding of the issue.
- Prevention and Intervention: Provide knowledge and skills to prevent, identify, and address sexual harassment incidents, creating a safer work environment for women.
- Empowerment: Empower women to recognize their rights and assert themselves against sexual harassment, fostering confidence and self-advocacy.
- Legal Framework: Familiarize students with laws and regulations related to sexual harassment, highlighting the role of the Human Rights Commission in protecting women's rights.
- Reporting and Support: Inform individuals about reporting mechanisms and support services available to victims of sexual harassment, ensuring they know where to seek help and justice.
- Role of Commissions: Understand the role and functions of the Human Rights Commission and the Commission for Women in advocating for women's rights, promoting gender equality, and addressing issues related to sexual harassment.
- Policy and Advocacy: Encourage students to engage in policy discussions and advocacy efforts aimed at creating inclusive and harassment-free work environments.
- Promote Accountability: Emphasize the importance of holding perpetrators accountable for their actions and creating a culture of zero tolerance towards sexual harassment.

Mrs. Pratima Kumbhare conducted Session on Government policies for women empowerment, Legislative efforts to curb domestic violence against women, Child marriage.

Objective of the Session

- Raise awareness about government policies promoting women's empowerment.
- Educate students about legislative efforts to combat domestic violence against women.
- Create awareness about the issue of child marriage and initiatives to address it.
- Foster understanding of the role of government in promoting gender equality.
- Empower students to critically analyze and assess the effectiveness of these policies and legislative efforts.
- Encourage students to engage in policy advocacy to contribute to positive change in these areas.

Mrs. Geetanjali Deshmukh conducted Session on Dowry death and honour killing.

Objective of the Session

- Raise awareness: Increase awareness among students about the issues of dowry death and honor killing, highlighting their prevalence and the devastating consequences they have on individuals and society.

- Understand cultural and social contexts: Explore the cultural and social factors that contribute to dowry death and honor killing, helping students understand the underlying beliefs, norms, and practices that perpetuate these forms of violence.
- Challenge harmful practices: Foster critical thinking and encourage students to challenge and question the legitimacy and ethics of dowry and honor-based violence.
- Promote gender equality: Highlight the importance of gender equality in addressing dowry death and honor killing, emphasizing the need to challenge patriarchal norms and discriminatory practices.
- Empower victims and survivors: Provide support and resources for victims and survivors of dowry death and honor killing, promoting their rights, well-being, and access to justice.
- Advocacy and prevention: Inspire students to engage in advocacy efforts to raise awareness, promote legal reforms, and work towards preventing dowry death and honor killing in their communities.
- Foster empathy and social change: Develop empathy among students towards victims and survivors, encouraging them to actively contribute to creating a more just and inclusive society that rejects violence in the name of honor or dowry.

Miss. Stefy Bhagat conducted session on PCPNDT, Judiciary for the welfare of the women.

Objective of the Session

The objective of teaching about the Pre-Conception and Pre-Natal Diagnostic Techniques (PCPNDT) Act and the role of the judiciary in the welfare of women is to:

- Raise awareness: Increase awareness among students about the PCPNDT Act, its purpose, and the importance of regulating pre-natal diagnostic techniques to prevent female foeticide and promote gender equality.
- Understand legal framework: Familiarize students with the provisions and mechanisms of the PCPNDT Act, including its implications for medical professionals, clinics, and individuals seeking prenatal diagnostic services.
- Analyze enforcement and challenges: Explore the role of the judiciary in enforcing the PCPNDT Act, examining landmark judgments and legal precedents related to the Act, and discussing the challenges faced in its implementation.

- Promote women's welfare: Highlight the significance of the judiciary in protecting and promoting the welfare of women, ensuring their rights, and addressing issues such as gender-based discrimination, violence, and reproductive rights.
- Engage in legal discourse: Encourage students to critically analyze the role of the judiciary in interpreting and shaping laws related to women's rights and welfare, fostering an understanding of the intersection of law, justice, and gender.
- Advocate for legal reforms: Inspire students to engage in discussions and advocacy efforts for legal reforms that protect women's rights, improve the implementation of the PCPNDT Act, and address gaps in the judicial system concerning women's welfare.

Honorable Mr Pravin Nardele, Secretary, DLSA, Sangli was invited as Chief Guest and Resource Person for Role of Legal Service Authority to provide Legal Aid and Justice to women victims.

Objectives of the Session: -

- Legal Awareness: Educate women victims about their legal rights and entitlements, ensuring they are aware of the legal remedies available to them. This includes knowledge of laws related to women's rights, such as those pertaining to domestic violence, sexual harassment, dowry, divorce, and inheritance.
- Access to Justice: Promote equal access to justice for women victims, regardless of their socioeconomic background. The Legal Services Authority works towards removing barriers that may prevent women from accessing the justice system, such as lack of information, financial constraints, or fear of societal stigma.
- Legal Aid: Highlight the provision of free legal aid and assistance to women victims who are unable to afford legal representation. The Legal Services Authority offers support through legal professionals, including lawyers and paralegals, who provide guidance, advice, and representation to ensure that women victims receive fair and adequate legal assistance.
- Empowerment: Empower women victims by equipping them with knowledge and skills to navigate the legal system independently. This includes educating them about their rights, the legal processes involved in seeking justice, and the resources available to them for support.
- Rehabilitation and Support: Address the holistic needs of women victims by connecting them with other support services beyond legal aid. This may involve referring them to counseling, medical assistance, shelter homes, and rehabilitation programs to ensure their overall well-being and recovery.

The course concluded with a film screening of "THAPPAD" followed by a discussion panel consisting of Dr. P. P. Narwadkar, Mr. Sanjay Aher, Mrs. Manisha Kale, and Mrs. Pratima Kumbhare.

Course Outcome

Upon completion of the course, students can analyze the diversity of gendered experiences and apply feminist approaches to understanding social structures and cultural pressures related to gender inequality also would be able to assess how women's opportunities and achievements are constrained by systems of oppression and privilege. The students will be oriented to recognize, critically analyze, and choose paths of action for social change. It involves a systematic and rational study of women and society.

Following Outcomes

- Increased awareness: The course enhanced nursing students' awareness and understanding of gender issues, discrimination, and inequalities that women face in society. It helped them recognize the importance of promoting gender equality and empower them to become advocates for change.
- Enhanced empathy and sensitivity: Through the course, nursing students developed greater empathy and sensitivity towards the experiences and challenges faced by women. This increased understanding can positively impact their interactions with female patients, allowing them to provide more compassionate and patient-centred care.
- Improved communication skills: Gender sensitization courses often emphasize effective communication strategies. Nursing students learned how to communicate respectfully and inclusively, avoiding gender biases or stereotypes. Such skills are crucial for establishing trust, providing support, and ensuring effective healthcare delivery.
- Increased gender sensitivity in healthcare practice: By addressing gender-specific healthcare needs, nursing students developed a better understanding of the unique health challenges faced by women. This knowledge led to improved healthcare outcomes, better patient experiences, and more inclusive and appropriate care.
- Empowerment and self-confidence: A course on women empowerment helped nursing students develop a sense of empowerment themselves. They gain confidence in challenging gender norms, advocating for women's rights, and actively promoting gender equality in their personal and professional lives.

6. Expanded career opportunities: Nursing students who receive education on gender sensitization and women empowerment better prepared to address the specific healthcare needs of women. This open upped new career opportunities in specialized areas such as women's health, reproductive health, or gender-based violence support services.
7. Collaborative approach: Gender sensitization courses often emphasize the importance of collaboration and teamwork. Nursing students learnt to work effectively with colleagues from diverse backgrounds, fostering an inclusive and supportive work environment.
8. Social impact: By developing a deeper understanding of gender issues and women empowerment, nursing students contributed to societal change. They can actively engage in community outreach programs, participate in awareness campaigns, or initiate projects that address gender inequalities and promote women's rights.

Overall, The Course was successfully completed with Students Feedback. Through reflection Method.

विषय: महिला पंच- सरपंचांसाठी आयोजित महिला कायदेविषयक प्रशिक्षणात प्रमुख पाहुणे म्हणून मार्गदर्शन करण्याबाबत.

महोदया / महोदय,

महाराष्ट्रात, राज्य महिला आयोगाच्या सहकार्याने महिला राजसत्ता आंदोलनाने 'कारभारणी प्रशिक्षण अभियान' सुरु केले आहे. या अभियानांतर्गत जिल्ह्यातील महिला पंच- सरपंचांकरीता 'महिला कायदे व कारभार' या विषयावर एक दिवशीय प्रशिक्षणाचे आयोजन केले आहे.

या एकदिवशी प्रशिक्षणात, 'महिला कायद्यांची ओळख, प्रभावी कारभार परिचय आणि लोककेंद्री गाव कार्यक्रम' याविषयी मार्गदर्शन करण्यात येणार आहे.

महिला लोकप्रतिनिधींच्या नेतृत्व विकासाला चालना मिळावी व महिला कायदे व कार्यक्रमांची गावस्तरावर प्रभावी अंमलवजावणी व्हावी हा या कार्यशाळेचा प्रमुख उद्देश आहे.

आपण या कार्यशाळेत प्रमुख पाहुणे म्हणून सहभागी होऊन महिला लोकप्रतिनिधींना 'महिला कायदेविषयक' या विषयावर मार्गदर्शन करावे.

सदर प्रशिक्षण दिनांक २३ / ८ / २०१८ रोजी सकाळी १०.३० ते ५.०० या वेळेत -वसंतदुआदा--पार्टीक-सभागृह--निष्ठा-सारोळी-- येथे आयोजित करण्यात आले आहे. तरी कार्यक्रमाचे प्रमुख उद्घाटक व मार्गदर्शक म्हणून आपण यावे, हि त्रम विनंती
